ORDER TO DISMISS JUDGMENT ORDER DATED FEBRUARY 4, 2005

This Cause is before the Court on a Motion from the United States Probation Office to dismiss the Judgment Order dated February 4, 2005 for the above defendant regarding the revocation of supervised release. The Probation Officer respectfully moves for a dismissal due to the defendant's death.

On February 4, 2005, the defendant, Robin G. Stroud, was sentenced to nine (9) months imprisonment and ordered to surrender to the United States Marshal Office within sixty (60) days of sentencing or upon receiving notification that bed space was available at the medical facility the Bureau of Prisons designated.

The Court was advised, by the United States Probation Office, that the defendant was designated to Devens Federal Medical Center at 42 Patton Road, Ayer, Massachusetts, 01432, but they were awaiting an available bed at this facility. Considering the defendant's personal medical care requirements, the Court ordered Stroud's self surrender date to be extended indefinitely, until bed space was available. The Order was filed June 22, 2005.

The Court was advised December 15, 2005, that Stroud had been designated in August 2005, but was unable to be transferred to Bureau of Prisons Custody, because he was hospitalized for an acute medical condition.

SO ORDERED this the 30th day of April, 2007.
